AGGIES LOSE TO CROOKSTON 46--68

The Morris Aggies were overpowered by a tall, well-balanced team from the Crookston School on Thursday, January 26th. With Madsen, regular Aggie forward, out with a sprained ankle, the Morris Aggie reserves were gradually overpowered to a final score of 68-47. Loren Thormodson of Underwood, the other Aggie forward, sat out most of three quarters as a result of fouls.

The Aggies got off to a lead and held it throughout the first period when the score stood at 12-11. Midway in the 2nd period Crookston took the lead and went ahead to stay as they outscored the Aggies 22-15 in this period and the score was 33-27 at half time.

In the second half Crookston gradually pulled away as the game ended 47-68. Helm of Crookston was high scorer with 22 points followed by Mathias and Cole of Morris who had 14 and 13 respectively.
